WEIGHT OF YOUR VOICE.

DID you ever consider the weight of your voice? We know some men who consider their very ponderous while others never give their voice the least consideration. The following from the Glenwood Iowa, Opinion, is worthy of notice along this line:

"Don't be backward about speaking a good word for this town. It costs you nothing, and its value is beyond measure."

"You may imagine that the weight of your individual voice is little avail. But you are in error."

"Every good word counts—as does every bad one."

"Your individual opinion has great weight with some, and reasonable weight with others. There is no one upon whom it does not leave its impress."

"When you point out the beauties and the advantages of this community, and sterling qualities of its citizens, you stamp these facts upon the mind of those with whom you converse, and they in turn transmit to others."

"In this way the good work becomes an endless chain, always traveling, always boosting, always beckoning to the stranger to come where good words and deeds abound, and where ill ones are seldom heard or seen."

"Every voice has its weight, and yours is not the least of all."

A GOOD liar is one that keeps his mouth shut remarks Col. Socrates Sowers.

HEARST as a king maker is having the same luck the Hohenzollern dynasty has had lately.

SOCRATES Sowers says the great trouble about being partial to frogs is finding the time to get them.

THE fellow who starts to raise a "little hell" usually raises a bigger crop than he anticipated remarks Col. Socrates Sowers.

THE only way some folks can attract attention, remarks Col. Socrates Sowers, is to drive their car with the muffler wide open.

ONCE to run back after starting meant bad luck. Miss Nellie Sowers says today it means you most likely forgot that powder puff for your nose.

COL. Socrates Sowers, who has just returned from St. Louis, says it is surprising how young city chickens are when they start "laying" for you.

WHEN a man begins feeling he is greater than his party he is preparing for a higher dive than ever won honors for the late lamented Steve Brodie.

WHY is it that baldheaded men who don't polish their shoes never polish their pates?

MISS Nellie Sowers says the reason the city slicker picked her father's pocket was because his suit had reached a "ripe" old age.

POPULAR songs, as you have no doubt discovered, require more or less popular voices to maintain their position, says Col. Socrates Sowers.

SOCRATES Sowers say the old saw about "always being in a hurry, always being behind" evidently refers to the speeding motorist and his police court fines.

WHENEVER you hear a fellow talk about the pleasures of the "good old fashioned Fourth of July" you know he hasn't been able to lubricate his thirst for quite a period remarks Col. Socrates Sowers.

SOCRATES Sowers says with high prices and cool weather you can get the same sensation staying at home as you used to get going to some resort and at the same time you save railroad fare.

MISS Nellie Sowers says greatness is soon forgotten. The Republicans at this convention had little to say about Abe Lincoln and she supposes the Democrats when they meet will hardly notice former president Joseph Jefferson.

IT is reported that the Democratic convention by adopting a "wet" plank at San Francisco would put a spoke in the Hardin and Coolidge wheel almost sure to carry them over the rough places in their path toward nomination. Quite a number of politicians who are accredited neither "wet" or "dry" give this their opinion.

Miss Wilhelmine Taylor left Thursday morning for Fort Worth, Texas, after visiting Miss Elizabeth Harper and other friends here.
